Preface

Austin Community College would like to express our sincere appreciation to our business, industry, labor, and community partners who donated their time and expertise toward the identification and validation of competencies in the following Austin Competency Analysis Profile.

Introduction

The ACAP (Austin Competency Analysis Profile) initiative comes out of the Curriculum Development Office of Instructional Technology and Distributed Learning at Austin Community College. This initiative is ACC's primary source for Competency-Based Curriculum development, providing a connection between our academic and workforce programs and the needs of business and industry.

The ACAP is a process for analyzing an occupation to develop curriculum. The product is a competency list, employability skills, and academic skill levels that have been developed and validated by subject matter experts who perform the occupation. This list will be used to develop programs that address the needs of business and industry by equipping our students with the entry skills required in a workplace environment.

A CAP Process Overview

What are Austin Competency Analysis Profiles (ACAPs)?

Austin Competency Analysis Profiles (ACAPs) are competency lists for academic and workforce programs verified by expert workers, or Subject Matter Experts. These lists evolve from a well-established job analysis process involving business, industry, labor, and community agency representatives from throughout the Austin area.

How is an Austin Competency Analysis Profile used?

Each ACAP identifies the occupational, academic, and employability skills (or competencies) needed to enter a given occupation or occupational area. The ACAP not only lists the competencies but also clusters those competencies into broader units and details the knowledge, skills, and attitudes (competency builders) needed to perform each competency.

Within the competency list are two levels of items: core and advancing. Core items, which are essential for entry-level employment, are required to be taught—the concept of advancing items will only be introduced to students. Advancing items are those needed beyond entry level in a given occupation, and are designated as “Advanced.” If core competencies or competency builders are present in an “Advanced” unit, then they are designated as “Core.”

Educational institutions may add as many units, competencies, and/or competency builders as desired to reflect local employment needs, trends, and specialties. Local advisory committees are actively involved in the identification and verification of additional items. Faculty members formulate their courses of study using the varied contents of the ACAP. Faculty also monitor gains using many forms of assessment.

Occupational Competencies

The following Occupational Competencies have been identified and verified by a panel of subject matter experts currently employed in the field of Camera Operator. This panel of experts has determined that these skills will adequately prepare students for entry level positions in this field. The Competencies are grouped into units. Competency Builders are included to help identify the knowledge, skills and attitudes students need to perform each competency. These Competencies and Competency Builders are designed to be the basis for curriculum development to ensure business and industry input that is relative and meaningful to the workplace. These Competencies are intended to include all basic, necessary skills for this occupational area, but may be supplemented with additional competencies as faculty and advisory committee members see the need to do so.

Key Terms:

Competency—an observable and measurable behavior that has a definite beginning and end; can be performed within a limited amount of time; consists of two or more competency builders; and leads to a product, service, or decision.

Competency Builders—the skills, knowledge, and attitudes (written in measurable terms) needed to perform a given competency.

Entry Level—position of employment that requires no previous experience, but may require some training and/or specific skills, knowledge, or attitudes.

WorkKeys® Process Overview

Developed by American College Testing (ACT), the purpose of the Job Profiling process is to identify the level of applied academic skills that, according to business and industry, students must master to qualify for and be successful in their occupation of choice. The results of Job Profile “leveling” can help teachers to better target instruction toward their students’ needs.

The WorkKeys component, developed by ACT, measures students’ applied academic skills. These academic skills include Applied Mathematics, Locating Information, Reading for Information, Listening, Writing, Teamwork, Observation, and Applied Technology. It is determined during the profile which skills apply to the specific job or occupational area.

The ACAP (Austin Competency Analysis Profile) typically includes one or more of the skills described below. A fourth skill may be identified and included if the subject matter experts agree that it is necessary for entry into the position.

- Applied Mathematics measures students’ ability to analyze, set-up, and solve math problems typically found in the workplace.
- Locating Information measures students’ ability to use graphic documents to insert, extract, and apply information (includes charts, graphs, tables, forms, blueprints, maps, and instrument gauges).
- Reading for Information measures students’ ability to read and understand work-related reading materials (text only—does not including charts, graphs, tables, forms, blueprints, maps, or instrument gauges).

Each WorkKeys assessment is further broken down into four to five levels of achievement, with higher numbers indicating higher achievement in the assessed skill. For each academic skill, the Job Profiling process identifies the level required for successful entry into an occupational area as identified by subject matter experts.

A CT WorkKeys® Skill Levels

Skill Area and Rank	Entry Level	Performance Level
1) Locating Information	4	4
2) Reading for Information	4	4-5
3) Applied Mathematics	3	3

Entry Level

Refers to the requirements necessary for someone entering into the occupation (without previous on the job experience).

Performance Level

Refers to the level at which an employee would need to function effectively having gained on-the-job knowledge.

Skill Ranking

Refers to the criticality of the skill to the performance of the occupation with the most critical skill indicated with one (1) and higher numbers indicating lower criticality.

Levels of WorkKeys® Defined

The skills needed to achieve each level for WorkKeys academic skills identified in this profile are as follows:

Locating Information

Locating Information measures skill in using information taken from workplace graphics such as diagrams, blueprints, floor plans, tables, forms, graphs, charts, and instrument gauges. There are four levels of complexity, 3 through 6, with Level 3 being the least complex and Level 6 the most complex. The levels build on each other, each incorporating the skills at the preceding levels.

Level 3

- Find one or two pieces of information in elementary workplace graphics, such as simple order forms, bar graphs, tables, flowcharts, and floor plans.
- Fill in one or two pieces of information that are missing from elementary workplace graphics.

Level 4

- Find several pieces of information in these type of graphics.
- Summarize and/or compare information and trends in a single graphic.
- Summarize and/or compare information and trends among more than one workplace graphic, such as a bar chart and a table showing related information.

Level 5

- Summarize and/or compare information and trends in single graphic.
- Summarize and/or compare information and trends among more than one graphic, such as a bar chart and a table showing related information.

Level 6

- Make decisions, draw conclusions, and/or apply information to new situations using several related and complex workplace graphics that contain a great amount of information or have challenging presentations (e.g., very detailed graphs, charts, tables, forms, maps, blueprints, diagrams).

Reading for Information

Reading for Information measures skill in reading and understanding work-related reading materials. There are five levels of complexity, 3 through 7, with Level 3 being the least complex and Level 7 the most complex. Although Level 3 is the least complex, it still represents a level of reading skill well above “no skill at all.” The levels build on each other, each incorporating the skills at the preceding levels.

Level 3

- Identify uncomplicated key concepts and simple details.
- Recognize the proper placement of a step in a sequence of events, or the proper time to perform a task.
- Identify the meaning of words that are defined within a passage.
- Identify the meaning of simple words that are not defined within a passage.
- Recognize the application of instructions, from a passage to situations that are described in the passage.

Level 4

- Identify details that are more subtle than those in Level 3.
- Recognize the application of more complex instructions, some of which involve several steps, to described situations.
- Recognize cause-effect relationships.

Level 5

- Understand the paraphrased definition of specialized words or phrases (jargon or technical terms) defined in these reading materials
- Use jargon or technical terms appropriately in describing situations stated in these reading materials
- Understand the meaning of acronyms defined in these reading materials (an acronym is a work or collection of letters which stands for a longer phrase, such as HMO to mean Health Maintenance Organization).
- Figure out which definition of a word with multiple meanings is appropriate in the context of these reading materials.
- Apply information given in these reading materials to situations that are not directly described, but similar.
- Apply instructions or procedures with a number of steps to described situations. These instructions may include conditional (if X happens, then you should do Y).

Level 6

- Recognize the application of jargon or technical terms to new situations.
- Recognize the application of complex instructions to new situations.
- Recognize the less-common meaning of a word with multiple meanings from context.
- Generalize from a passage to situations not described in the passage.
- Identify implied details.
- Explain the rationale behind a procedure, policy, or communication.
- Generalize from a passage to a somewhat similar situation.

Level 7

- Recognize the definitions of difficult, uncommon jargon or technical terms from context.
- Generalize from a passage to situations neither described in nor completely similar to those in a passage.

Applied Mathematics

Applied Mathematics measures skill in applying mathematical reasoning to work-related problems. There are five levels of complexity, 3 through 7, with Level 3 being the least complex and Level 7 the most complex. The levels build on each other, each incorporating the skills at the preceding levels.

Level 3

- Perform basic mathematical operations (addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division) and conversions from one form to another, using whole numbers, fractions, decimals, or percentages.
- Translate simple verbal problems into mathematical equations.
- Directly apply logical information provided to solve problems, including those with measurements and dollars and cents.

Level 4

- Perform one or two mathematical operations (such as addition, subtraction, or multiplication) on several positive or negative numbers. (Division of negative numbers is not covered until Level 5.)
- Add commonly known fractions, decimals, or percentages (e.g., $\frac{1}{2}$, .75, 25%) or add three fractions that share a common denominator.
- Calculate averages, simple ratios, proportions, and rates, using whole numbers and decimals.
- Reorder verbal information before performing calculations.
- Read simple charts or graphs to obtain information needed to solve a problem.

Level 5

- Look up and calculate single-step conversions within English or non-English measurement systems (e.g., converting ounces to pounds or centimeters to meters) or between measurement systems (e.g., converting centimeters to inches).
- Make calculations using mixed unit (e.g., hours and minutes).
- Determine what information, calculations, and unit conversions are needed to find a solution.

Level 6

- Set up problems and do several steps of calculations or conversions.
- Calculate using negative numbers, fractions, ratios, percentages, or mixed numbers (e.g., $12 \frac{1}{8}$).
- Transpose a formula before calculating (e.g., $8X = 20 \Rightarrow X = 20/8$).
- Look up and use two formulas to change from one unit to another unit within the same system of measurement (e.g., 1 cup = 8 fl oz, 1 quart = 4 cups).
- Find mistakes in calculations, such as those required in lower levels.
- Determine the best deal and perform a further calculation with the result.

Level 7

- Solve problems requiring multiple steps of logic and calculation.
- Solve problems involving more than one unknown, nonlinear functions (e.g., rate of change), and applications of basic statistical concepts (e.g., error of measurement).
- Locate errors in multiple-step calculations.
- Solve problems with unusual content or format, or with incomplete or implicit information
